Mammals

Mammals nurse their babies and have hair.
Birds

Birds have feathers.
Fish

Fish live in the water and have gills, scales, and fins.
Reptiles

Reptiles have scaly skin and are cold-blooded.
Amphibians

Amphibians are born in the water with gills, but develop lungs when they grow up.
Insects

Insect bodies have an exoskeleton, three segments and six legs.
Arachnids

Arachnid bodies have an exoskeleton, two segments and eight legs.
Crustaceans

Crustaceans have an exoskeleton, segmented body, and paired, jointed legs.